

REMARKS

Applicant believes the corrected drawings satisfy the Notice Regarding Drawings requirement for corrected drawings. The corrections to the drawings are purely stylistic and do not add substantive matter. Because the changes are purely stylistic, drawing sheets demonstrating the corrections are not being submitted. Applicant requests that the corrected drawings be accepted by the draftsman doing the drawing review. Applicant respectfully submits that with the submission of the corrected drawings, all of the requirements for issue of this patent application have been satisfied. Applicant requests that the application be allowed to issue.

Respectfully submitted,

Date February 24, 2005
